

From Small Business to Large Enterprise with Smithers AI

Meet Smithers

Does this sound familiar? Ask yourself:

- ▶ Are you struggling to manage customer inquiries while baking your next masterpiece?
- ▶ Do you wish you could clone your best salesperson to handle more leads?
- ▶ Is your marketing reach limited by your budget and time constraints?

Sarah found her solution in Smithers AI. Let's explore how it transformed her small business into a thriving enterprise.

Meet Sarah, the owner of a small local bakery. Like many small business owners, she dreamed of expanding her customer base and streamlining operations. But with limited resources and time, growth seemed out of reach.

Your AI Receptionist: Always On, Always Knowledgeable

Meet Smithers

With Smithers AI Inbound Calling, Sarah's bakery now had:

- ◆ A 24/7 receptionist handling inquiries and booking appointments
- ◆ 50% more appointments booked without hiring additional staff
- ◆ 30% reduction in missed calls and lost opportunities

The same AI assistant powered Sarah's website and social media chatbot:

- ◆ Answering questions about menu items and allergens instantly
- ◆ Booking 40% more cake consultations through chat
- ◆ Freeing up Sarah's time to focus on creating delicious treats

Ask yourself: How much time could you save with an AI assistant handling your front-line communication?

Your Best Salesperson, Multiplied

Sarah's next step was leveraging Smithers AI Avatars for commercials:

- ▶ Created professional-quality video ads featuring an AI version of her top decorator
- ▶ Reduced ad production costs by 80%
- ▶ Increased social media engagement by 60% with eye-catching video content

These commercials directed potential customers to AI Webinars:

- ▶ Hosted by the same AI avatar, showcasing cake decorating techniques
- ▶ Generated 3x more leads than traditional marketing methods
- ▶ Converted 25% of webinar attendees into paying customers

Ask yourself: What if you could have your best salesperson pitching your products 24/7 without burnout?
